

Islip, NY – Islip Councilwoman Trish Bergin Weichbrodt recently visited The Rosati School of Mixed Martial Arts. The school hosted a child safety day and provided free child safety classes, including child abduction prevention and bully prevention.

Councilwoman Bergin Weichbrodt toured the school and watched some of the children demonstrate their martial arts skills.

Pictured along with members of The Rosati School of Mixed Martial Arts are Islip Councilwoman Trish Bergin Weichbrodt (left) and New York State Assemblywoman Ginny Fields (right).